Over 200 years of American history and over 200 years of writing west into creating this remarkable edition. Over 90 contributors, many writing at the same time historic events were occurring, combine to give this volume an air of excitement and authenticity which is seldom seen in other books of this type. This collection of words, pictures and ideas was produced by the Saturday Evening Post, which was there to record history over 200 years ago

"The American Story" includes reports by Benjamin Franklin on the Decis ration of Independence, James Fenimore Cooper on adventures across America, sough for America by Longfellow. Whattier and Bryant.

This 10 volume set presents a comprehensive view of American history from the landing of the first New World explorers up to 1972. An abundance of illustrations, plus the exciting and dramatic text will capture the interest of children and adults since. Each volume covers a specific time or event in the growth of our country, including The Revolutionary War, Withing the West, The Age of Steel, World War I World War II and America Today (1972)

Throughout the series are a number of special emays on selected topics by famous historians such as Brock Catton, Robert Heilbroner and others. Every volume also includes two special picture portfolios on subjects such as The Great Gold Rush, The Last Wars with the Indians, Whaters and Clippers, The Robber Barons and D-Day. The set contains 1,920 total pages. Each volume measures 7x10 inches high 3 C 1770—Shipping weight .4 lbs. Set 915 88
